Desk or sideboard.

The cubus writing desk with infinitely height-adjustable monitor is exceedingly convenient. The monitor adjusts to the user's height at the push of a button.

The cubus writing desk can be fitted with drawers or doors to meet your personal requirements in respect of storage space. The bottom part of the cubus writing desk is also handy: a computer, folders and printer can be stowed away behind the hinged doors. Useful detail: the pull-out printer shelf.
